REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Blackville-Hilda High School is educating students who are competent, responsible individuals with the unlimited capacity to ascertain and meet the challenges of today's high-tech, data driven society. We are achieving this goal by teaching at higher levels through structured, relevant, and challenging academic experiences.

During the 2010-2011 school year Blackville-Hilda High was in its second year of the High Schools That Work initiative, and we continued the development of a rigorous academic and career/technical program of study while expanding the culture of high expectations for all students. Some of the ways we accomplished this included utilizing data to drive instruction, curriculum and assessment, restructuring the Enrichment period to focus on student's most critical areas of academic need, and the use of the leadership/focus teams to assist with the curriculum and instructional practices necessary to advance student growth.

The Freshman Academy was successfully implemented in 2009 and was sustained this past year to assist in the successful transition of students into high school for their first year. Initiatives like the STAR Academy and Palmetto Priority Schools were implemented this year to give students even more opportunities to be successful. Through these initiatives, additional materials, technology and support were provided to enhance and supplement instruction while increasing student exposure to content material.

Among the many accomplishments during 2010-2011 for Blackville-Hilda High School I am proud to list the following: Palmetto Silver Award, PPS non-continuation, 83+% first time passing on HSAP, more than $1.3 million in scholarships for the Class of 2011, and a Gates Millennium Scholar. Although we are making great strides, BHHS continues to have challenges and opportunities in seemingly equal measure. However, the administration, staff, and students - with the aid of the district office, community and all other stakeholders - will take full advantage of every opportunity and exceed the challenges so that our students will seek "Excellence by Choice, not by Chance."
